Amendment Ordered in Regard to Private Vehicles.

The Commissioners yesterday ordered an amendment to the police regulations, making it an offense for the owners of any private vehicle to exhibit thereon while the vehicle is on a public highway any sign, notice, or advertisement of rates or charges for its use. Violations of the law are purhishable by a fine of not less than $1 or more than $40. The amendment was ordered as the result of complaints to the effect that private automobiles employed by vertain hotels in the city have been displaying for eals signs while standing in front of the hosteries. The matter has been before the District officials for averal months.
